Mattress Firm

Mattress Firm is a name you've heard of if looking for a mattress. The company offers many different styles, sizes, and materials, and even offer bedding and linens. You can find everything from bedding for your team to bedding that fits your decor. You can find discounts on both brands and styles by looking at their ads.

The company was established in the south of the United States and has experienced rapid growth in the past few years. It recently expanded its reach across the country by purchasing other mattress retailers like Sleep Train and Sleep Country USA. It now has more than 250 stores across the nation. They stock a range of well-known brands and offer everything from crib mattresses to California King mattresses.

However, Mattress Firm has had a tough year. The company has had an uneasy relationship with its main supplier Tempur-Sealy. It temporarily removed popular Tempur-Pedic beds from its stores. In 2018 it filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection and shut down 700 of its stores. During this time, it faced financial scandals at its parent company, as well as intense competition. The company was forced to temporarily shut down its retail stores and relocate its employees. It had to also face the pandemic 2020 outbreak that decimated the United States, causing many stores to shut down temporarily.

The quality and cost of Mattress Firm mattresses are on the lower end of the market. They compare well to the middle-priced Beautyrest. However, they're not the same price as those you'll find at other retailers. To get a better price you may have to utilize traditional bargaining techniques. If you are unable to find a comparable mattress anywhere other than Mattress Firm, they may be able to negotiate with you.

Mattress Firm also sells a line that is exclusively sold at Mattress Firm locations. The Perfect Sleeper Elite is one of their most recent models. It is based on the 886 DuoCore coil technology. These mattresses are also referred to as iComfort Elite models at other retailers. Hampton & Rhodes is also available as a private label.
